C.A. No. 21-11785-AK

JOINT STATUS REPORT ON PENDING MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY RELIEF

Pursuant to the Court’s order dated April 8, 2022, the parties in the above-entitled action hereby report the following regarding discussions to suspend any rescheduling of the Plaintiffs’ asylum interview at the Boston, MA USCIS asylum office:

1. The parties are unable to reach agreement on how long to suspend rescheduling of the Plaintiffs’ asylum interview. The Plaintiffs request that the interview not be rescheduled until such time as the issues in this case are resolved on the merits and until such time as the USCIS reopens and adjudicates the Plaintiffs’ applications to adjust status. The Defendants will agree to suspend the interview to a date between August 15, 2022 and September 15, 2022.
2. Based on the disagreement between the parties, Plaintiffs request that the Court issue a decision on the Plaintiffs’ pending motion for preliminary relief. The Plaintiffs seek a temporary restraining order without a definite end date and use of the terms set forth above and in their motion. The Defendants believe the Plaintiffs’ pending motion for preliminary relief is moot and this Court need not issue a decision on such motion as the Plaintiffs' asylum interview will not be rescheduled until a date between August 15, 2022 and September 15, 2022.
